

WHO MURDERED ME?

TRISH HAYNES

Discovered: September 2018

Location: Grafton, New Hampshire

Age: 25-years-old

On September 6, 2018, the Grafton Police Department in Grafton, New Hampshire, recovered a stackable washer and dryer from Grant's Pond containing human remains. The remains were later identified as Trish Haynes.

For months, Trish's family was asked by New Hampshire law enforcement to keep her death a secret. It was not until July 2019 that the New Hampshire Attorney General's Office publicly announced her death.

Since then, there have been no arrests or case updates related to Trish's murder.

IF YOU HAVE ANY INFORMATION, PLEASE CALL THE NH STATE POLICE AT

603-223-4381