LONENE RAY ROGERS

Last Seen: January 7, 1981

From: Hayfield Township, Pennsylvania

Height: 5'5"

Weight: 140 lbs

Hair: Sandy Brown/Blonde

Eyes: Gray

Lonene "Lonnie" Rogers is a Caucasian female who is profoundly deaf and communicates using American Sign Language (ASL). She has sandy brown hair, gray eyes, a freckled complexion, and pierced ears.

Lonnie was reportedly last seen by her husband, Clinton "Bud" Rogers, on January 7, 1981, between 2 and 3 am during a snowstorm. According to him, she left following an argument. However, she left behind her purse, hearing aids, medication, car keys, and — most significantly — her two small children, whom she loved dearly.
