FINLEY CREEK JANE DOE

Found: August 27, 1978 near Elgin, OR

Height: 5'1" - 5'3"

Weight: 115-125 lbs

Hair: Sandy Brown

Age: 17 to 25 years old at time of death

On August 27, 1978, hunters discovered a skeleton in the woods near Elgin, Oregon, in Union County. Investigators determined the remains belonged to a young woman between 17 and 25-years-old at the time of her death. She was approximately 5'1" to 5'3" tall, weighed between 115 and 125 pounds, and had sandy brown hair. Evidence suggested she may have been pregnant when she died.

Among the items found with her remains were a white halter or bra-style top, red Catalina pants (size 15/16) that appeared to have been altered in length, and ankle-high lace-up shoes. Additional clothing remnants included red and white fabric, white material featuring small red hearts, zippers, and pieces of nylon cord.

Crime Stoppers of Oregon offers cash rewards of up to $2,500 cash for information, reported to Crime Stoppers, that leads to an arrest in any unsolved felony crime and tipsters can remain anonymous.
